

The fact that our national media is owned by a handful of powerful corporations is a sham. How can the views of the many be expressed when the power to do so is in the hands of a select few? I urge you to free up the air and radio waves for public access and to break up the devastating monopolies that are currently in place with out media.